

LTP Submission

Eastland Wood Council

The Eastland Wood Council (EWC) is an incorporated society which provides a collective voice for the forestry industry in Tairāwhiti, for the benefit of Tairāwhiti.

Presentation By:

Philip Hope | CE Eastland Wood Council & Nicki Davies | Member - Ernslaw One

Our Philosophy and Strategic Goals

Our Philosophy

Forestry is a vibrant, respected industry in Tairawhiti

Strategic Goals

Care for the Environment - Kaitiakitanga
Sustainability and best practice

Health and Safety

Safe and healthy people and work environment.

Roads to Market

Sustainable transport infrastructure

Growing our People

Right people, right skills, right training

Environment and Regulations

Biodiversity

More focus on protecting what we have

Consenting and Monitoring

More capacity and understanding of forestry

Catchment management

More support for development of catchment groups

Pest control

More support for collaboration of pest control

Climate change

More support for land use decisions and preparedness for storm events

Roads and Transport

Accepts responsibility

For scale and impact of road use

Inclusion of woodlots

Supports inclusion in definition of forestry

Fair and equitable

Reflects the proportion of use and impact from all major industries in the region

Use of other engineering studies

Formula for targeted rating of various land uses based on load

Collaborative approach

Forecasting, communication and funding

Collaboration – Working groups

Roding

Forecasting, planning and delivery of regional priorities for maintenance

Environment

Catchment Management, Biodiversity and Pest control

Regulation

Planning, consents and monitoring

